EDITED BY: SAMAJ DARSHAN COMMITTEE
We apologize for any printing errors or omissions

Dear Samaj Members,

Our 2004 EC and BOT committee, wishes you and your family a very happy, healthy and a prosperous New Year. Once again, we have a very talented and dedicated team in EC, BOT, and GSY to serve our samaj. We also would like to thank the 2003 EC, BOT, and GSY committee for doing the best job possible. We can assure you together, we will raise the bar to the next level, and make this samaj all that it was meant to be. We are looking for full support from all of you.

As we know, cost of living, renting equipment, halls and quality programs going higher and higher. Therefore, we had a general body meeting and we decided to raise the membership fee to $35.00. In addition, there is another change in the constitution; the due date for membership will be Feb 28, instead of July 31 of each year. To take full advantage of the annual membership, we request you to fill out the form ASAP. From this year, we have a website called www.gsod.org. It will give you forms to apply for membership, year events, and all other updates from our committee. As we progress toward the technology age, the computer has become more useful in spreading our ideas. The website was designed by Rakesh Patel, Nirav Patel & friends. We would like to thank them for doing a splendid job.

It is always a dream of our members to build our Cultural center where we can promote a variety of different in-house activities. With that thought in mind, this year EC and BOT committee has decided to add nominal charge on all events to raise funds to fulfill our future dreams. Please support us to reach next milestone of our Samaj.

As we know, volunteers are always welcome to Samaj, I urge you to fill out the attached form and we will count on your help in all events. A courtesy reminder that EC and BOT members are volunteers who take pride in serving our community. Samaj is yours and we are merely custodians who are inherently responsible for preserving its integrity by adhering to the established by-laws and constitution.

We are looking forward to serving you in this exciting New Year.
Peace,
prosperity and tranquility to all.

Harendra R. Patel
EC - President

Dilip Desai
BOT - Chairman
